

New Home A Minute Is Goal For Bustling West Germany In 1953

By BRACK CURRY
BONN, Germany (AP)—A new home a minute in 1953 is the target for bustling West Germany. The Germans already are leading all other European nations in home building. Over 440,000 new homes or dwelling units with accommodations for 1,700,000 persons were built last year.

The federal government says 500,000 or more will go up this year.

This will be about three times the number of dwellings built by the Nazis in what is now West Germany at the height of Hitler's building boom.

The West Germany building trade has pulled a real miracle in trying to cure the nation's gigantic housing shortage.

In 1949, 215,000 new dwellings units were completed. The number jumped to 360,000 in 1950, to 433,000 in 1951 and to 440,000 last year. Even so, the nation's housing shortage will last for years. The wartime housing loss was staggering.

Two million dwellings were smashed by bombing and battle activity. Millions more were damaged. Aside from rebuilding or repairing these, two million homes are needed to care for the millions of refugees who have swarmed in from Communist East Europe.

Financed By Government
Government officials say 10 to 12 million West Germans still are living in emergency quarters like old air raid shelters or with other families.

Obsolescence hacks away at least 50,000 dwellings a year and the normal population increase calls for 75,000 new ones every year.

More than 75 per cent of the new dwellings in West Germany are financed from government funds or by savings banks or co-operative societies. The reason: The average German simply cannot afford to finance the building of a new home.

Noted Lecturer Shoots Kidnaper Of Daughter, 58

ST. PETERSBURGH, Fla. (AP)—Dr. Laban Lacy Rice, 83-year-old lecturer and former university president, shot and seriously wounded a man who attempted to carry off his daughter in a weekend invasion of their home in suburban Gulfport.

Joe Ciani, 46, a carpenter, is in serious condition in a hospital from bullet wounds in the chest and shoulder but he is expected to recover.

Rice, who used a 50-year-old pistol to halt Ciani, also accidentally shot his daughter, Mrs. Katherine Shaw, 58, in one hand. She was treated for the wound and shock.

Sheriff Sid Saunders said Ciani had been interested romantically in Mrs. Shaw since she hired him for some carpenter work three years ago. Several months ago, police were called when Ciani went to the Gulfport home to press his attentions on Mrs. Shaw.

Saturday night he returned to the home, Saunders said, and when Rice ordered him to leave, Ciani picked up Mrs. Shaw, who weighs about 120 pounds, and ran out of the house with her. The shooting followed.

Sabres Bag New Bunch Of Migs

By STAN CARTER
SEOUL (AP)—A Texas jet ace shot down another Red jet fighter today as clear weather brought more battles between Allied Sabres and Communist MIGs.

On Sunday, Allied Sabres destroyed seven MIGs and probably destroyed another.

The ground war continued unabated on the 155-mile front. Allied soldiers and Reds mixed in 29 small fights last night and Communist staff officers today completed arrangements for next Monday's exchange of sick and wounded prisoners.

The battleship New Jersey returned to Korean action and unlimbered her 16-inch guns on Communist targets in the Chongjin area of North Korea.

The New Jersey's big guns, scoring seven direct hits in as many minutes, destroyed Chongjin's main communications building, the Navy said.

Cops Use Handy Beer To Douse Cafe Fire

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—It was the handiest liquid around, so four cops—doubling in brass as early morning firemen—used 3.2 per cent beer to help douse a fire at a drive-in restaurant.

Patrolmen in a cruiser discovered the blaze coming from stacks of beer cases under a counter. They radioed for help, then squirted fire extinguishers from their own cruiser. When that ran out, they poured beer into buckets and threw it on the flames.

The blaze was almost out by the time firemen arrived. A fireman noted that the policemen were using one of the best fire extinguishers in the world. Beer foam is composed largely of carbon dioxide, which is used in many extinguishers.

Stabs Brother-in-Law

MT. CLEMENS (AP)—Although he claimed he acted in self-defense, William Smith, 53, of Mt. Clemens, was held for investigation of murder today. Authorities claimed he stabbed to death his brother-in-law, Herman Wells, 42, during an argument Sunday, April 12.

State Legislators Grapple With New Taxes This Week

Hopes Are Dim For Passage Of Levy On Payrolls

LANSING (AP)—Michigan Legislature will finally edge itself this week to the heart of the matter of new taxes.

While the Senate pursues a deliberate "hands-off" policy awaiting House developments, the House this week will tackle the Van Valkenburg payroll tax bill, the first major tax measure to reach debate in either chamber.

Popping out of committee last Friday, the payroll tax is on the calendar for debate when the House reconvenes at 8 p. m. tonight, but there are many bills ahead of it on the packed calendar and it could be several days before it reaches the top of the list.

Tiger Game Thursday

The bill would raise about $400,000 with a five mill levy on the amount of payrolls employers report for federal social security purposes.

Capitol speculation gives the payroll tax a slim chance of passage in both chambers.

Facing the final five weeks of the 1953 session, the House and Senate have packed calendars. The Senate, which worked Friday afternoon for the first time this year, will reconvene at 4 p. m. today so that it can get ahead of its calendar enough to permit the members to attend the Detroit Tiger opener Thursday.

The upper chamber will grapple today, probably, with its appropriations committee's proposal for a system of county mental hospitals—an attempt to halt the continual construction of expensive state institutions.

Prison Bills Waiting

Up again for debate is the Hittie bill to liberalize convicts' good time allowances, but this time the measure has been restricted to provide parole board scrutiny of any inmate released.

Just behind on the program is a bill reviving the five-man State Corrections Commission as a substitute for the present single commissioner.

Also listed for early debate is a bill to abolish the office of coroner and substitute a system of medical examiners.

The House will vote on a bill tightening the Trucks anti-Communist law so that it may face a court test more successfully.

Longshore Union Boss Named For Misuse Of Funds

NEW YORK (AP)—Joseph P. Ryan, president of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association was arrested today on charges of stealing $11,390 of the union's funds.

A grand jury accused the heavy-set, 69-year-old dock workers boss of siphoning off union money for these, among other, personal expenses:

Dues in golf and country clubs for himself and friends, buying clothing, premiums on his wife's life insurance policies, taxes on his Long Island summer home.

If convicted on each of the 30 counts in the grand larceny indictment, Ryan could get up to 82½ to 165 years in prison.

Bomber Plunge Kills 5 Marines

SILER CITY, N. C. (AP)—Five Marines died in the flaming wreckage of the medium torpedo bomber, the pilot and another officer parachuted and survived.

The plane was on the last leg of a round-trip training flight between the Cherry Point, N. C., Marine Station, its home base, and the Glenview, Ill., Naval Air Station.

First Lt. George McHardy, 31, of Chicago had radioed to the Greensboro, N. C., airport that the plane was on fire.

He and 1st Lt. R. A. Wilson were the only survivors. McHardy was not hurt seriously. Wilson, whose parachute was found only partially opened, was listed as critical at a hospital here.

The Cherry Point public information office identified the dead as: Cpl. J. J. Flanagan, 22, Chicago; Cpl. A. B. Kobiske, 22, Berlin, Wis.; Cpl. C. J. Nowaczyk, 23, Chicago; Pfc. Carl E. Lindholm, 20, Northfield, Ill.; and Cpl. N. N. Leudke.

U. S. Freightier Sinks Nippon Fishing Boat

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. freighter American Mail and a Japanese fishing boat collided today in hazy weather six miles east of Yokohama. The fishing boat sank and two of its crew are missing.

The American Mail, undamaged, picked up eight of the 10 Japanese crewmen then searched two hours for the others.

Flier Spots Fire

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—A sharp-eyed co-pilot on a departing airliner spotted a fire yesterday on the roof of a large apartment house.

Benjamin Peters of Syracuse, outward bound for Washington on a Colonial Airlines plane, radioed the control tower at Hancock Field, which relayed the alert to firemen.

Only the roof was damaged by the blaze.

Secretary Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—Miss Malvina Thompson, 61, secretary to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt for the past quarter century, died yesterday of a heart ailment at New York Hospital.

Sen. Byrd Says U. S. Still Short On Ammunition

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate inquiry into ammunition shortages was sidetracked temporarily today by the insistence of Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) that no committee meet during the Senate debate on the submerged oil lands issue.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me), chairman of the investigating Senate Armed Services Sub-committee, called off today's hearing. She said she hoped Morse would change his position so the inquiry could be gotten underway again Wednesday.

Normally, the Senate grants unanimous approval for committees to continue their work while the Senate is in session. But Morse has said he would not give his approval to such meetings during the Senate debate on submerged lands, expected to continue all week.

Three Pentagon generals responsible for production, distribution and stockpiling of Army ammunition, had been called to testify today, and Sen. Smith had said that "broad and searching questions" were to be asked.

She told reporters that Morse's position will be a "terrific handicap" in getting the ammunition inquiry completed, and in carrying on other business.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said in an interview, meantime, that the ammunition supply in this country is "dangerously depleted." Although current supplies in the Far East, including Korea, may be adequate, he said, "there still is not enough ammunition."

Red Propaganda May Have Won Over Some U. S. POWs In Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—If some American soldiers return from Red prisoner of war camps talking like converts to communism, says the Defense Department, they probably are the victims of a "propaganda web."

Apparently looking toward that, the Pentagon got out a "fact sheet" last night. It described Red treatment of prisoners—sometimes harsh, sometimes soft—as one of the Communists' propaganda techniques.

Some prisoners may have been trapped by distorted information and others may have pretended co-operation as an alternative to death or torture, the statement said.

Adlai In Malaya

SINGAPORE (AP)—Adlai Stevenson arrived here today from Jakarta for a five-day tour of Malaya.

Young Bandit Kills Ottawa County Pair

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—Ottawa County authorities prepared formal murder charges today against Harold Gregory who after a day's questioning admitted that robbery was the motive for his slaying of a young farm couple Friday night.

Sheriff Gerald Vandern Beek said a murder warrant was being prepared and that Gregory, 25-year-old fugitive from Traverse City State Hospital, would be arraigned in Holland Justice Court later today.

Gregory readily admitted the slaying of Andrew Kuntz Jr. and his wife, Ethel, both 22, in their Ottawa County home. Kuntz was killed from a shotgun blast. His wife died with 48 stab wounds in her body.

But until Sunday Gregory had refused to tell why he did it. Then, in a detailed confession to Prosecutor Wendell Miles, Gregory said he had planned to burglarize the Kuntz home where he had been a guest many times. He wanted money, he said.

According to the confession Kuntz was killed when he discovered the intruder. Gregory said Mrs. Kuntz was knifed to death because "she saw me. I had to shut her up. I was afraid to be caught for stealing because I had been picked up in Muskegon once for stealing."

Michigan Boy Lays Out Freedom Village For Disabled POWs

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—A Michigan boy laid out "Freedom Village" where sick and wounded Allied prisoners of the Korean War will be processed. He is 21-year-old Pvt. Eugene Masnick, a Detroit draftsman in civilian life.

Masnick was picked from Korean Base Engineer Section to design the village here at Munsan. A graduate of Detroit's Eastern High School, Masnick entered military service July 14 and has been in Korea since last January. He is the son of Mrs. Sallie Masnick of Detroit.

At Detroit, Mrs. Masnick said her son wrote in his last letter that he had been picked "to help design a chapel in Freedom Village," but made no mention of the Army's giving him the job of laying out the whole village.

If possible, helicopter transport from Panmunjom to "Freedom Village" will be effected. (NEA Telephoto)

Dividing Tactics Of Reds Denounced In Final UN Unity

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—about two days of talk left in it before the final vote. Non-Communist delegates to the United Nations pointed today toward winding up the U. N. Assembly session this week on a theme of unity against Soviet dividing tactics.

The Assembly Political Committee debate on the Polish-Soviet peace plan, a direct attack on Western security programs, had

Governor Okays Help For Bridge

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today endorsed the proposal to appropriate up to $500,000 a year from highway funds to aid the financing of the Mackinac Straits Bridge.

The Mackinac Straits Bridge Authority has reported it probably can not sell revenue bonds without such a grant.

"From an economy standpoint," Williams said, "the state would be foolish not to accept this plan, because it would not cost the state a cent in the long run."

"The bill provides that the tolls on the bridge shall be maintained until these advances have been repaid so the bridge project is still a self-liquidating proposal and the annual maintenance advance merely would indicate the interest of the state in the bridge."

He added, "I feel that if the Legislature does not go along with this plan, it can not be for economic reasons, because there would be no economy in turning down such a plan."

Williams said that actually the annual appropriation would save the state the $650,000 it is "losing" on the Straits ferry operation now.

Cherry Blossom Fete Washed Out By Rain In Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rain washed out the finale of Washington's annual Cherry Blossom Festival yesterday, but there may yet be a silver lining for the queen.

A steady drizzle led officials to call off the water skiing pageant, windup of the five-day frolic.

Queen Janet Kaye Bailey of Akron, O., who was crowned Saturday by Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, had trouble getting her flowing coronation gown into a suitcase. Said the 18-year-old beauty: "I think I'll get married in it."

Shift Of Prisoners In Korea To Start Week From Today

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Here are the facts and figures of Operation Little Switch, the exchange of sick and wounded prisoners of the Korean War. It starts a week from today.

Place—Panmunjom, site of the suspended armistice talks.

Number involved—The Reds will return about 60 Allied prisoners, including 450 South Koreans, 120 Americans, 20 Britons, and 15 Turks, Greeks, Canadians and Dutch. The United Nations will return 5,800 Communists, including 5,100 North Koreans and 700 Chinese.

Rate of exchange—The U. N. will turn over 500 prisoners daily in groups of 25. The Reds will deliver 100 daily in groups of 25.

Time required—The entire exchange should be completed in 12 days, although the formal agreement allows 20 days.

Hours of exchange—9 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily.

Father Of 11 Hangs Himself In Corunna Jail With Mattress

CORUNNA (AP)—The 57-year-old father of 11 children awaiting trial on a rape charge was found hanged in the Shiawassee County jail Saturday night. Authorities said he committed suicide.

The victim was Ernest Griffin, of Corunna, jailed Tuesday on the complaint of an 18-year-old girl. Griffin was the only prisoner on the second floor of the jail. Sheriff's deputies said he tore a strip from a mattress, made a noose in it and then tied the other end around a bar at the top of his cell.

Police said he was separated from his wife, who resides in the Hillsdale area.

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP)—Rescue workers have completed the recovery of the bodies of all 13 victims in the Caribbean airliner which crashed into the sea off Jamaica Friday.

City Employee Injured Here

Joseph Wery, 52, of 917 South 16th St., suffered crushed toes on his right foot which may require their amputation, but he escaped more serious injury and possibly death by the quick action of a fellow city workman here Saturday morning.

Wery, described as a temporary employee who had been working with the public works department crew for about one week, is expected to lose all but the large toe on the right foot. He is receiving treatment in St. Francis Hospital.

The accident occurred on Fifth Ave. S. near 22nd St. where the city is installing a storm sewer connection. Wery was lying face downward looking into a catch basin which was being pumped out when a large shovel operated by Charles Pepin began backing slowly toward him.

John Connelly of 308 South 14th, in charge of the crew, shouted to Wery, who did not hear the warning. Connelly then ran to Wery and pulled him from the path of the slowly backing shovel. The steel tread of the tractor crushed Wery's toes on the right foot.

If Connelly had not observed Wery and acted quickly, said City Manager A. V. Aronson, the tread would have passed over Wery's legs between the knees and the hips.

Class Of 1923 To Meet Thursday In Planning Reunion

All members of Escanaba High School Class of 1923 residing in the Escanaba area are asked to attend a meeting to be held at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, April 16, to plan for a class reunion. The meeting will be held in the lunch room at Junior High School.

The reunion will be held July 3 at the Dells. An effort is being made to obtain the largest possible representation at the reunion.

Three members of the Class of 1923 have not yet been located by the arrangements committee. They are Constance Walker, Alfred Livingston and Romaine Vleit. Anyone knowing of the whereabouts of any of the three is asked to telephone 2199.

The awards are all-expense four-year scholarships to any college or university that has an NROTC contract with the Navy Department.

Tipsy Local Driver Fined By Ranguette

Orval Perry, Escanaba, pleaded guilty Saturday in the Escanaba justice court of Judge Henry Ranguette to driving while under the influence of intoxicants.

Judge Ranguette fined him $50 and assessed him court costs of $5. Perry was also fined $5 and assessed court costs of $2 on a charge of driving a vehicle with defective equipment.

Perry's operator's license was suspended.

TRANSIST-EAR for Hard of Hearing

Here is the world's first ALL-TRANSISTOR hearing aid—first consumer product to use the amazing transistor to full advantage.

This instrument, operated entirely by a single "energy capsule," uses transistors to eliminate ALL vacuum tubes and bulky batteries. It is hardly larger than a cigarette lighter—weighs only 2½ ounces—may be worn on the wrist—as a tie clip—or concealed in a woman's hair. Its efficiency brings 75% reduction in operating costs.

This revolutionary Matco TRANSIST-EAR is now on display at our office. Stop in for a personal demonstration, or write today for FREE booklet, "Facts About Transistor Hearing Aids." This booklet may save you many dollars and guide you to the best hearing help. Send for it by using this coupon.

The catches were very good. The perch were biting rapidly and the "catch" included many jumbos. (Daily Press Photo)

Smelt, Perch Runs Open In Delta During Weekend

The spring sports fishing season got under way in the Delta county area over the weekend with smelt fishing on streams and rivers and perch fishing from Little Bay de Noc.

Smelt were taken last night at Ford, Escanaba and Days Rivers and on a stream at Misery Bay south of Escanaba on the Green Bay shore, according to Allen "Weezy," assistant district conservation supervisor.

The run was not heavy last night but it is expected to increase nightly and build up to a peak within the next 10 days. All of the forecasts point to one of the largest smelt spawning runs in many years.

Perch Outlook Good

Elsewhere in the northern Lake Michigan region the smelt were starting to run over the weekend all the way from the Straits of Mackinac to Oconto, Wis., according to reports.

Good catches of perch were made at Rapid River at the head of Little Bay de Noc yesterday, and other perch fishermen gathered at Gladstone for fair catches. Large jumbo or yellow perch in large quantities are taken in both Little and Big Bay de Noc during the spring perch run.

When the run gets fully under way other favorite perch fishing spots include Nahma, Garden and Fayette on Big Bay de Noc.

Many perch fishermen have had good catches at Escanaba off the old North Western railroad dock and the new city dock.

Last night smelt dipnetters' fires blazed along the banks of rivers and streams in Delta county. Many fishermen spent the night on the streams, but a heavy run did not materialize.

Ten years ago the smelt all but disappeared from the Great Lakes, killed by some mysterious disease that left piles of them along the shores. Since then they have been making a comeback. Last year the smelt run was considered good. This year is expected to be better.

Most of the smelt taken go to dinner tables in homes and restaurants throughout the Middle West, but millions of pounds are also sold to mink ranchers to feed their stock. Much of the smelt harvest is frozen and stored for later use.

Guard Officers Back From Staff School

Lt. George C. Anderson and Lt. Stephen Praddo, platoon leaders with Escanaba's National Guard unit, Co. "C," 107th Engineers have returned from a two-day staff school at battalion headquarters in Ishpeming.

Purpose of the school was to train officers for higher staff levels. Officers from Manistique, Calumet, Marquette and Ishpeming also attended.

While in Ishpeming officers were given a chance to visit the battalion service center for vehicle repair.

Lt. Anderson gave a command report for Co. "C," reviewing the unit's activities for the past months as well as its training yet to be accomplished. He explained that work had started on the new vehicle-storage addition to Co. "C's" 23rd St. armory.

Beaver Season Ends Tomorrow

Beaver trappers will have plenty of pelts for the market this spring but the price they will receive will be low compared to a few years ago.

Escanaba district conservation headquarters officers described as "very good" the beaver trapping season which will end at noon tomorrow in the Upper Peninsula. The number of pelts taken is expected to set a new high for the past several years.

The price, however, is something else again. The market price is down.

Fur buyers in Escanaba today said that a large blanket beaver will bring a price of about $20—which compares to $60 paid for a blanket back in 1946. This year the prices will range downward to as little as $5 for small pelts.

All pelts must be sealed by conservation officers before they may be sold and the district conservation headquarters will be busy at the task through Wednesday, April 15.

'Trout Night' Is Sportsmen's Club Program Tonight

A prelude to the opening of the trout fishing season, on April 25, is the "Trout Night" meeting of the Delta County Sportsmen's Club at 7:30 tonight upstairs at Carpenters' Hall. Entertainment planned for members of the club includes an appearance of Herb VanHorn, Gladstone creator of fishing flies, some of Bill DeCock's outdoor movies and lunch. Business for the meeting ranges from plans for a beaver feed next to contact the Allo Funeral Home.

month, a discussion of club house possibilities, a review of the M. U. C. C. district meeting held in Escanaba last month to committee announcements and reports.

Tonight's meeting is a shift in date from that tentatively set a month ago. The change was made because of a conflict in dates for use of the hall and to secure a meeting place with enough room to properly conduct meeting. Walter Snyder, Wm. DeCock, R. C. Shaw, Tryg Olsen, Wilfred Charrand and Francis Farrell compose the committee in charge of entertainment arrangements.

Dedication Of Church April 26

St. Anne's new Catholic church, corner of Eight Ave. S. and 23rd Street, will be formally dedicated Sunday, April 26, by Bishop Thomas L. Noa of Marquette.

The dedication ceremony will begin at one o'clock with the blessing by Bishop Noa, followed at 1:30 by a pontifical high mass. Officers of the mass will be former priests of St. Anne's parish.

There will be a banquet at 4 p. m. at the Knights of Columbus hall and there will be open house in the church throughout the afternoon and evening.

John Somerville, Green Bay, is architect of the building and Erling Arntzen, Escanaba, general contractor. Ground was broken a year ago last September.

The church will seat 450 parishioners.

Joseph Warmig Dies In Hospital, Services Tuesday

Joseph Warmig, 63, who lived at the Welcome Hotel, died at 6 p. m. Saturday at St. Francis Hospital following a lingering illness.

He had lived in Delta County the past 35 years. He worked for the Delta Chemical Co. many years, and the past 10 years was employed by the Escanaba Paper Co. He had no known relatives.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. Tuesday at St. Anthony's Church in Wells. Father Ralph Sterbentz will officiate. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery. The body is at the Alto Funeral Home where friends may call beginning this evening. The rosary will be recited at the funeral home at 8:30 tonight.

Dairy Employees To Meet Thursday

A meeting for operators and employees of dairy processing plants will be held Thursday April 16 at 7:30 p. m. in Delta County Courthouse, Joseph L. Heirman, county agricultural agent, said today.

Don Murray, Michigan State College specialist in dairy products will discuss "A Quality Milk Program."

A panel discussion will be held on questions submitted by dairy processing plants, Heirman said. The panel will consist of Charles "Jack" Little, extension dairy specialist for the U. P.; Mason Smith, milk inspector for the Michigan Department of Agriculture; and Murray.

Heirman will be chairman.

Issue Permits For Six Homes

Applications for permits to build six new dwellings in Escanaba have been approved by the city, it was reported today by Charles Schmidt, city assessor.

The dwellings, locations where they will be built, and the applicants, are as follows:

John J. Piron, 2230 Seventh Ave. S.; Albert Kozorow, 1512 Seventh Ave. S.; Martin Krokstad, 1515 17th Ave. S.; Henry Mayville, 812 South 18th St.; Leo Therrian, North 20th St.; and Carl Eastman Jr., 1005 North 20th St.

According to the estimated valuations set down by the applicants, the dwellings are to cost $6,000 each.

Other approved applicants for building permits are as follows: Enclosure of a porch at St. Patrick's Church property, 1201 First Ave. S.; addition to a storehouse at 2223 Ludington by Herbert Flath to cost an estimated $3,000; and construction of a garage at 1304 First Ave. N. by William F. O'Connell.

Two Girls Awarded Superior Ratings In Speech Finals

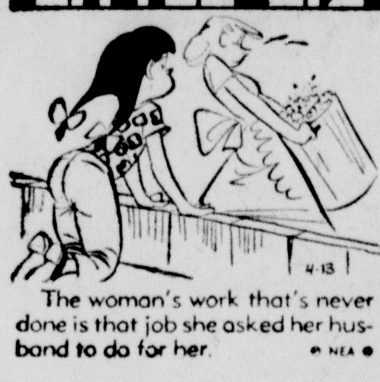

Harriet Williams and Marlene McMartin are the two Escanaba Junior High School finalists who received superior ratings in the dramatic declamation finals at a student assembly.

The declamations which they presented were "A June Night" given by Harriet and "Gwendolyn Meets the Dentist" given by Marlene.

The three other students who presented their declamations to the assembly were Carolyn Beaumier, Ann Brunelle, and Sylvia Simonson. All of the students were under the direction of Mr. Koskela, director of the Junior High School Speech Club.

The two finalists will compete at the Senior High School this week, and if they receive similar ratings, they will be eligible to compete at the district finals held in Menominee.

Heavy Smelt Run Expected This Week In Delta County Streams

THE annual smelt runs in Delta County waters are expected this week, with prospects for the heaviest harvest since the silvery fish mysteriously all but disappeared 11 years ago.

Dipnetters have already reported light catches in some streams but it probably will be a few more days before the runs get heavy. Commercial fishermen report an abundance of smelt this year. Catches in the nets before the ice broke were exceptionally heavy, usually a sign of good prospects for the dip netters.

Commercial fishermen have set a minimum price of 1 1-2c a pound this year. Whether they can hold this price remains to be seen. Such things are usually decided by the age-old law of supply and demand. Nonetheless, few can argue that the price of smelt at 1 1-2c a pound is excessive, whether for human consumption or animal food. At that price, about the only commodities that are cheaper are air and water. The 1 1-2c per pound price has not consistently held in other years. A stronger market appears evident this spring, however.

Smelt fishing with dipnets is an interesting and exciting experience, particularly at the peak of the runs. It is especially satisfying to the fishermen who may not have had much luck fishing for trout, bass, walleyes and similar game fish. Here is a fishing sport where the "catch" is measured in bushels.

Many Legislative Proposals Are Dead

A total of 316 legislative proposals died a natural death in the Michigan House of Representatives last Friday, the deadline for committee actions.

As might be expected, many of the bills that passed into the ashen because of inaction were bills of either doubtful or negative value. Some were bills with desirable objectives, such as the bill to validate check marks on election ballots.

Most of Governor Williams' so-called "Fair Deal" proposals were wiped out. They included plans for a minimum wage law, liberalization of workmen's compensation and unemployment compensation, abolition of the lien law applying to payment of old-age pensions.

Also forgotten were bills opposed by the municipalities of the state making mandatory a 40-hour week for policemen and providing additional "Kelly" days for firemen.

These and hundreds of other bills covering an extremely wide range of subjects failed in this legislative session with the expiration of the deadline for committee action Friday.

Whether the bill authorizing the leasing of state property survived is still uncertain here as this is written. Escanabans are particularly interested in this bill because it would permit the extension of the U. P. State Fair exhibition building with private funds.

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

In my boyhood, to call a person a copy-cat was to invite blows. I wonder why. After all, the term only meant that the other was an imitator, a mimic, and there was no great crime in that. But, despite the fact that we were all familiar with the old adage, "Imitation is the sincerest flattery," there was something derisive about the word copy-cat, something that called for prompt retaliatory action.

Why copy-cat, no one knows. The term is American, and certainly originated more than a hundred years ago. But who it was who started the notion that a cat will copy a person's actions is unknown.

Apes and monkeys will. That is why we speak of a person who apes another's style or mannerisms. And, of course, we are all familiar with another old saying, sometimes humorously attributed to Confucius, "Monkey see, Monkey do." In fact, judging from the reflexes of my own children when younger, for one to quote that to another was about as much of a red rag to a bull as copy-cat had been in my day.

A more polite term, of course, is imitate. Checking back on the Latin source, we find that this word fundamentally means to represent the likeness, or to act in the likeness of something or someone. It may make it clearer to know that image is a related word.

Unfortunately, all these words of copying may indicate sincerity or they imply mockery. When one apes or imitates the mannerisms of another, he may do so in an earnest attempt to copy something that he thinks is worthwhile. Or, on the other hand, by burlesque or caricature, he may do it to evoke the laughter of spectators.

The word emulate (EM-yu-LATE) also means to copy, but with an earnest attempt to surpass that person or thing. A young man who emulates the success of his father, aims to accomplish an equal success at least, and hopes to be more successful. The term derives from Latin emulus, a rival.

The Doctor Says . . . Diseases Fall Off As Killers Of Children, Accidents Rise

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

About five thousand children between one and four years old are killed in accidents in the United States each year. The seriousness of this problem is shown by the fact that accidents account for about one-fourth of all deaths of children in that age bracket. It is particularly tragic because many of these accidents could have been prevented.

Being run over or struck by automobiles is responsible for a great many fatal accidents—railroad trains and streetcars for a few more. Burns from playing with matches or firecrackers, or upsetting hot fluids, also account for a considerable number. Young children do not have much sense of the dangers of water, either, and therefore drowning, often in shallow water, is a leading cause of fatal accidents.

A considerable number of child deaths result from falling—some from windows and porches. Small children love to explore and so perhaps not all of these could be prevented. However, care in keeping windows and screens locked and warning children against particularly dangerous exploration could certainly prevent some injuries, nonfatal as well as fatal.

Some accidental deaths of small children come from drinking poisonous substances. All poisons should be kept out of the reach of children; poison labels are of no value because small children cannot read, and even older children pay no attention.

Besides those children who are killed by accident there are many more who are seriously injured. Some of these cause permanent damage which will alter the entire later life of the youngster.

Of course, too, injuries are not restricted by any means to children from one to four. Among older children accidents are also common, although caution develops with age and they become less frequent as times go on.

BE SAFE ALL WAYS

Parents should guard in every reasonable way against mishaps which can produce death or injury to their children. The responsibility is a real one though it cannot always be successful. Certainly a little more care in driving automobiles where children play and in using other methods which guard against accidental injury are highly desirable.

With the great decrease in deaths and illness from the diseases which used to be common among children, such as smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever and typhoid fever, accidents have zoomed to practically the top of the list as a killer of youth.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Margaret Truman does not plan to forsake her singing career, but she does plan to take on an additional career. She is going to follow in the footsteps of her famous father and take up politics.

She has her eye on the congressional seat back in the old home town, Independence, Mo.—a seat now held by Congressman Jeffrey Hillelson, a man her father considers a black Republican. Mr. Hillelson was swept in on the Eisenhower landslide last fall, and Margaret's pappy, who knows Missouri politics as well as he knows the main street of Independence, thinks it's a shame to have his home district almost sacrilegiously represented.

This is one reason why, when the Trumans come back from Hawaii, Margaret will carefully keep her residence in Independence, though her father and mother will take an apartment in a Park Avenue hotel. This doesn't mean that the ex-President is abandoning Independence. He isn't. But he plans to concentrate on writing his memoirs, and thinks New York is the best place in which to do it, though Mrs. Truman would prefer to live in Washington.

NIXON TO RESCUE

Young Vice President Nixon was the boy who privately kept his fingers in the political dike last week and stopped the growing flood of Eisenhower resentment against turbulent Joe McCarthy.

In fact, it was Nixon who threw the administration completely into reverse and managed to cut the ground out from under Mutual Security Administrator Harold Stassen after Stassen had delivered the toughest speech against McCarthy yet given by an Eisenhower spokesman.

It was also Nixon who, well before the Greek-shipping incident, had sold Ike on the idea of getting along with the McCarthy, the Jenners and the Velde. This was early in the Eisenhower administration. But as McCarthy began to pop off his pyrotechnics, and staged his bitter battle against Ambassador Bohlen, White House advisers began to wonder whether Nixon was right.

And when "Jumping Joe," as he's called in the White House, took upon himself the job of negotiating agreements with foreign shipowners, the President was reported by friends to have hit the ceiling. That was why his Mutual Security Administrator tangled with McCarthy publicly.

At this point, however, young Mr. Nixon came rushing back into the picture.

Mr. Nixon has not been exactly idle since he became Vice President. He has been holding private breakfasts with new members of the house and senate helping to get General "Slick" Persons, Ike's contact man with Capitol Hill, better acquainted. Persons has been out of touch in recent years.

Nixon also sent his close friend, Congressman Don Jackson, of California, with mercenary Congressman Harold Velde out to California in order to keep Velde from blowing off steam. This helped the administration with the churches. Nixon also attends two White House meetings regularly each week—cabinet sessions and the National Security Council—and he's quite considerate in giving colleagues on Capitol Hill the general picture of what's happening.

He's also been telling the White House that Ike will have to live with McCarthy for some time, that it's easier to catch flies with molasses, and that this is not the time to tangle.

From this background, Nixon first helped arrange the lunch between McCarthy and Secretary of State Dulles, then got the counsel for McCarthy's committee, Francis Flanagan, together with State Department attorneys one hour before the luncheon to draft a face-saving statement following the luncheon.

At the luncheon, Dulles completely ignored a memo by his State Department advisers that McCarthy was acting illegally in negotiating with Greek shipowners.

Note—Eisenhower himself, meanwhile, has come around to a long-range policy regarding McCarthy. He believes he can't afford to break with the Wisconsin trouble-maker until he can first win over the Republican right-wing senators who invariably support him. Once he has Taft safely in his corner, also Senator Bridges of New Hampshire, powerful chairman of the senate appropriations committee, Ike feels he can afford to break with Jumping Joe.

POLITICS VS. TRANSPORTATION

Both the politicians and the transportation industry are watching to see whether politics or transportation will win out regarding Ike's next appointment to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Last January, a delegation from the trucking industries defense committee, including Dave Beck, president of the Teamsters Union, Roy Fruehauf, head of Fruehauf Trailers, B. M. Seymour, and Arthur Condon, called on Eisenhower to urge the appointment of a trucking expert to the ICC. Though trucking is classed as the second biggest industry of the nation, it has had no representative on the body which is charged with regulating transportation.

Ike liked the idea, and has been considering the appointment of Frank Landsburg of Portland, Ore., who already is working for the ICC as a district director.

However, Gov. Arthur Langile of Washington suddenly decided he wanted a friend of his on the ICC, recommended Owen Clark of Yakima, Wash., a respected, conservative lawyer with no transportation experience.

Langile happens to be one of the B-C Eisenhowerites—namely an Ike-roster "before Chicago." So Ike is now torn between politics on one hand and transportation on the other.

Outdoor Diversion:

Romantic Michigan History Reflected In Place Names

By JAMES A. O. CROWE

Associated Press Outdoor Writer
LANSING (AP)—Now that the time is again almost on us when we'll be wandering all over our state in search of scenery, relaxation, hunting, fishing and all the rest of our wealth of outdoor diversions, you can increase your enjoyment with a greater consciousness of the romance of some of our place names.

Have you noticed, for instance, how the state's early French history is reflected in French names? And that they are confined almost entirely to the shores of the Great Lakes?

"On The Straits"

The French did not penetrate very far into the interior, so the other classes of Michigan place names—the Indian and the English—monopolize the interior. To take up the French place names, probably the best known is Detroit. This is a slight modification of D'Etoit meaning "of another. This oldest settlement in the Straits" and is a reference to the city's location on the Detroit river, which is really a strait between two lakes.

Sault Ste. Marie, of course, is the state was named for the French words for "the rapids of the St. Mary's River."

Grand Traverse Bay and county and Traverse City were named for the French words "Grand traverse" because here the canoes started the "great crossing" across the head of Lake Michigan to Green Bay.

"Heavenly Place"

Among the most beautiful sounding Indian names are Ishpeming (the heavenly place), Chippewa and Ottawa for Indian tribes and Otsego.

Many of the English names are ordinary enough, named like Grand Rapids for a local geographical feature or like Lansing, Jackson, Marshall for individuals. But many of them are downright amusing, and a search for their history pays many dividends.

Novi, for instance, was reputedly named for the number of the stage coach station which once stood there. It was number six in Roman numerals. No, VI—get it?

The locality where Bad Axe now stands was supposedly so named because the original surveyors found a broken axe on the spot.

Newaygo, the story goes, was named by an Indian squaw who bought a dishpan from one of the pioneer days peddlers. Not knowing what to do with it, she slid it down the snow-covered hills in the vicinity shouting, "New way go? New way go?"

The place names mentioned here by no means exhaust the great fund we have to work on. But maybe they'll excite your curiosity enough to dig into some of the most interesting of the thousands we have.

100-Year Forecast:

Future Weather Will Be Either Too Hot Or Too Cold

By RICHARD KLEINER

NEW YORK (NEA)—Weather forecast for next 100 years: whew and brrr.

The man who makes this daring prediction is Arnold Court, graduate meteorologist at the University of California. Using a mathematical formula, he has predicted the probable highest and lowest temperatures for 100 spots in the U. S. in the next century.

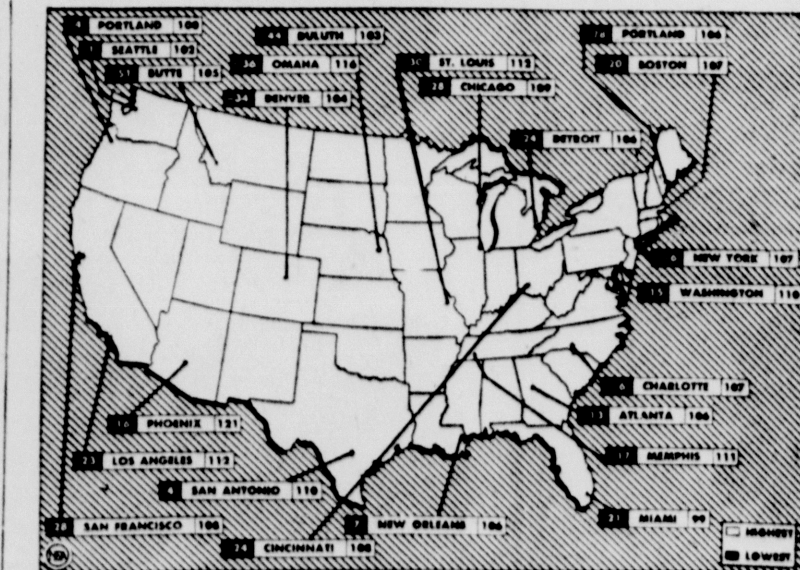

Sometime between now and 2053, the mercury in Death Valley, Calif., will bubble up to a tepid 130 degrees. And the coldest we'll see, if Court's computations are correct, is a brisk 64 below, which is expectable in northern Montana. The Montanans can hardly wait.

Court sets forth his conclusions in an article in the American Geographical Society's Geographical Review. It has all the fascination of a horror story.

Pick your location and hear the worst. New England? A high of 107 (in Massachusetts) and a low of 38 below in Vermont will be recorded in the coming 100 years. The South? Up to 114 (in Arkansas) and down to 22 below (in Tennessee) make this coming century charming.

There is no escape. The plains states are probably the worst off, with Court anticipating a high of 116 along a belt extending from Montana through the Dakotas, Nebraska, Kansas and on to the Oklahoma-Texas border, with a chilly 60 below in Montana and North Dakota.

In the battle between Southern California and Southern Florida, there's not much to choose. Los Angeles will get warmer (112 to Miami's 99), but Miami will be a touch colder (21 to LA's 23). As a matter of fact—or prediction—Northern California looks like a better bet than Southern California. San Francisco's expected extremes are 108 and 28.

Court bases his figures on a complicated bit of business called the statistical theory of extreme values, which is the work of a mathematician named E. J. Gumbel. This includes such phrases as "the extreme of a sample from a distribution of the exponential type," so let's not get involved with it.

Boiled down, it sets forth that by considering the extremes of any past set of figures (like weather), you can predict future extremes. Court takes the 30-year period from 1901 to 1930 and applies the theory to predict the coming 100.

He carefully points out, however, that the computation is purely mathematical and cannot take into consideration the climate changes taking place. Such changes are so gradual, however, that they would only add a degree or so here and there.

Court's calculations produce some surprising results. New Yorkers, who swan upstate to escape the city's summer heat, will be running away from a 107-degree high to an area of 109-degree extremes. And San Francisco's low of 28 is the highest low (if you are still following) in the nation.

The lowest highs are recorded along the northern Pacific Coast, from about Eureka, Calif., on up through Oregon and Washington. It won't get higher than 90 there, which is strictly small-scale sweltering compared to the 109, for example, predicted for the theoretically cool upper Michigan peninsula.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

THEY ALSO SERVE—Escanaba taxpayers will be pleasantly surprised to learn they have a fairly large number of part-time city employees who receive not one red cent of compensation.

They are the citizens who accept City Council appointment to boards and commissions. Their only reward is the knowledge that they are answering the call of duty like good citizens.

Unfortunately there are many other citizens (not on boards or commissions) who disagree more or less violently with the deliberations and decisions of the non-compensated commission and board members.

But that is a prerogative of every citizen. And it is not surprising that even the members of the boards and commissions fail to agree with each other all of the time. But majority rules there as it does elsewhere in this land of freedom and the decisions arrived at represent the will of the people.

IN THEIR POSITION—Here's a list we hope complete—of the city boards and commissions whose members serve without pay.

Escanaba City Planning Commission, Civil Service Commission, Zoning Board of Appeals, Safety Advisory Committee, Carnegie Public Library Board.

As a matter of information it should be pointed out that all of these agencies, if they may be so described, hold regular meetings and many special sessions when there is need. Some of the meetings are held in the afternoon, others in the evening.

The average citizen not involved in public affairs might consider the obligation placed upon his time should he be appointed to one of these bodies. And in addition he could expect, once he became a member of such a board, that he would be subjected to the criticism that is the usual lot of those engaged in any activity for the public benefit.

PLEASE THE PEOPLE—Up and down the street we have, at one time or another, heard thoughtless critics describe some of these volunteer public servants in the most uncomplimentary terms.

But if the critics would consider the problems encountered by these boards and commissions they might be a little more charitable. For it should be known that when you are dealing with the public's business it is everybody's business—and you cannot please some of the people at any time.

This thought occurred to us in observing the deliberations of the Planning Commission in recent meeting. In connection with a particular problem of local zoning a number of petitions had been received—both for and against the proposal.

The situation was even worse than that, commented Commission Chairman Joseph Ivens.

"This looks bad," he said, making smiling reference to the petitions. "Some of the husbands have signed one petition against it—and the wives have signed the other one for it!"

Not only that, said John J. Bartella, Commission member, inspecting the petitions, some people had signed both petitions.

BACK AND FORTH—There was another piece of business before the Planning Commission that had been shuttling back and forth between the Commission and the City Council since last fall.

This was not the fault of the Council or the Commission, but because the people of the area for which a street and alley plat was being prepared never seemed to be able to attend the right meeting at the right time.

The Commission would have a hearing on the matter and work out an agreement. Then when the plat went to the Council the people would appear to object to it, claiming they had changed their minds. The Council would then refer it back to the Commission.

Now the Commission believes it has the problem licked. It adopted a recommendation to the Council but will hold a final committee hearing first at which the property owners in the area will have to agree in the majority before it goes to Council.

Occasionally one of the boards or commissions recommends, after considerable study, a proposal that meets with the strongest public resistance. Such was the case with the Safety Advisory Committee's recommendation for parallel parking on Ludington Street.

Such a storm of protest resulted that the idea of parallel parking was abandoned for all time, by present indications.

Judge Gets Into Income Tax Suit

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Circuit Court judge testified the practice of law had been so distasteful to him for 25 years that he invested in race tracks and a cocktail lounge in an effort to find a way out of the legal profession.

The federal government claims Judge Vincent C. Giblin of Miami owes $21,866 in income taxes for 1945.

The Miami jurist contends the government erred in disallowing a $31,668 deduction he took as a business loss in operating the Stag Bar, Inc., a cocktail lounge now out of business.

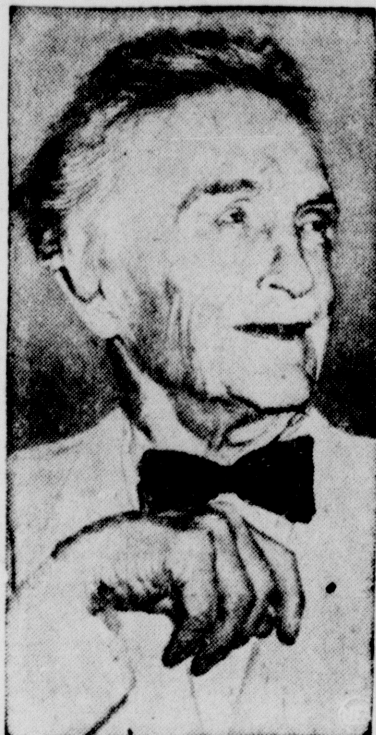

Government attorneys argued that the money Giblin sank in the venture was capital and that the loss was not deductible from income taxes.

Giblin told Federal Judge Clarence P. Lemire that the practice of law had been "distasteful" to him ever since he was admitted to the bar at Pensacola, Fla., in 1918.

He said he "ruined" his civil law practice in the 1930 when he became an associate counsel for gangster Al Capone.

Giblin said that in casting about for an "avenue of escape" which would enable him to abandon the practice of law altogether he also invested money in such ventures as a horse race track at Pompano, Fla., a dog track at Camden, N. J., and a Miami restaurant.

Giblin campaigned for the State Supreme Court last year but was defeated in a close election. He testified that his appointment to the Circuit Court gave him a chance to get out of law practice and he turned down a $50,000 legal fee he had just been offered in order to accept the appointment as judge.

Lost Plane Clue Found In Lake

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Administration here reported the discovery of a possible clue to the disappearance in a snowstorm last November of a plane with four Canadians aboard.

The CAA said that fishermen found a flight jacket, a life jacket and what was believed a piece of airplane windshield in a lake 20 miles west of Grand Marais. The flight jacket was Canadian-made. They also found men's socks, shaving equipment and a piece of what might have been an airplane the CAA said.

The lake is North Beaver Lake. It is 20 miles inland from Lake Superior. This is within the area of the plane's flight.

Flying from Edmonton, Alberta, to a football match in Toronto, the plane disappeared Nov. 29 after a take-off from a Houghton stop. It was never seen again.

Aboard were four Edmonton men—F. Lake, the pilot, and G. Edgar and B. Edgar, believed to be brothers, and D. Southerland.

The North Beaver Lake discovery was reported to the CAA by the buson's mate at the Grand Marais lifeboat station.

Merger Talk Kept Going At Meeting Of AFL And CIO

WASHINGTON (AP)—The AFL and CIO, talking merger again, have started out by trying to eliminate a source of friction between them.

Leaders of the two big labor organizations named a six-man group to try to work out an agreement against "raiding." This is the attempt by one union to replace another as bargaining representative in an already organized plant or industry.

Both AFL President George Meany and CIO President Walter Reuther told newsmen they knew such practices were going on and

Law Loses Out On Rep. Hoffman

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Rep. Clare E. Hoffman, 77-year-old Michigan Republican, got out of answering a speeding ticket here over the weekend by pleading Congressional immunity.

The Constitution provides members of Congress "shall in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same."

Hoffman was stopped April 2 by Maryland State Trooper J. W. Hardy, who swore the Congressman was doing between 65 and 70 miles an hour on US-40 where the speed limit is 50. Hoffman was ticketed between Hagerstown and Frederick, Md.

The Michigander was to have answered the summons before Magistrate Paul Ottinger on Saturday, but Senator J. Glenn Beall, Maryland Republican, called Ottinger and said Hoffman desired to invoke Congressional immunity. That let Hoffman off.

Chicago Saloon Robber Killed

CHICAGO (AP)—A two-gun saloonkeeper dueling a robber early Sunday in an unlighted Northwest Side tavern.

The saloonkeeper, Raymond G. Strobot, 35, was taken to a hospital with bullet wounds in the leg and hand.

The robber, about 22, was taken to the morgue. He was shot in the heart. He is still unidentified.

Strobot, who shot and wounded another robber in a similar incident two years ago, told police the prowler opened fire when Strobot investigated a noise which awakened him in his sleeping quarters at the rear of the Whistle Stop Lounge.

Strobot returned the fire with two guns he had kept under his pillow.

Police found $107 cash and a $50 check Strobot said were taken from his cash register in the pockets of the handkerchief masked robber.

Ore Boats Take Out 56,045 Tons Of Ore

Six boats bore 56,045 tons of ore from the Escanaba ore docks this weekend, the last boat sailing at 5:45 this morning, Lee McMillan, dock agent, said today.

The boats and their tonnage follow: Benson Ford, 11,224; Sullivan Brothers, 6,790; J. P. Morgan, 10,932; Amasa Stone, 9,124; Shiras, 6,330; Charles Schwab, 11,645.

Three boats were scheduled to go out today and tonight, the Conway, which finished loading at 11 this morning; the Shasta, due here this afternoon; and the E. T. Kinney, due at 9 tonight.

Only one boat will load at the docks tomorrow, McMillan said, the Sellwood, due at 8 tomorrow morning.

Rattlesnake Season Opens In Oklahoma; Over 1,000 Bagged

WAYNOKA, Okla. (AP)—An estimated 18,000 gunless hunters stalked rattlesnakes in the hills around Waynoka yesterday and brought back over a thousand alive.

The hunt, which kicks off the "rattlesnake season" in Oklahoma, will be followed next week by the famous annual Okeene, Okla., rattler roundup, considered the daddy of them all.

Rattler-wise hunters who wouldn't come within a country mile of their fangs in summer and fall know they can battle it out on even terms in April and come out ahead, alive, and usually unbitten.

The snakes are emerging from a winter-long sleep and are groggy. As Merlin Camp, secretary of the Waynoka Saddle Club, which sponsors the annual event, put it:

"How would you feel after a good, long sleep? Like pretty much of a deadhead?"

So the hunters stalk the dens with their little forked sticks—snake-bite serum and suction cups are standard equipment with every group—and catch the reptiles near the head, pinning them. The snakes are not injured, because hunt officials will pay only for the live variety—50 cents a pound.

The Waynoka group then sells the snakes for the same prices to Arthur Jones, professional handler from Slidell, La., who resells them to zoos and antivenom plants. A few end up butchered and canned considered rare delicacies in the "caviar set."

Strike Closes 15 Ford Co. Plants

DETROIT (AP)—Forty thousand Ford Motor Co. workers were idled today when 15 of the company's 19 Ford, Lincoln and Mercury assembly plants across the nation closed because of a strike at a Monroe, Mich., parts plant.

Negotiations to end the strike of 2,200 workers were to resume this afternoon 2:30 p. m., EST, after a Sunday bargaining session failed to break the deadlock.

CIO United Auto Workers walked out April 1, charging a speedup. Company officials denied the accusation.

The Monroe plant makes wheels, coil springs and chrome parts.

Of the 40,000 laid off, 7,500 were at Ford's giant Rouge plant here. It normally employs 60,000.

A company spokesman said all available sources of supplies are being tapped in an effort to keep production lines operating as long as possible at plants which are still operating.

Ironwood Candidate Accused Of Slander

IRONWOOD — Commissioner John B. Chappell of Ironwood's fifth precinct was arrested today on complaint of William L. Johnson, his opponent in last Monday's biennial city election, who charged that in the campaign Chappell had fraudulently obtained public money.

Chappell pleaded innocent when arraigned in municipal court before Judge Charles C. Keeton, Jr. and was released on his own recognizance. Hearing in the case was set for 10 a. m. Wednesday, April 15.

The complaint signed by Johnson, a former city manager, declares, in part, that Chappell "did falsely and maliciously by words writing and publication . . . accuse and/or impute to William L. Johnson, Ironwood, commission of the crime of fraudulently obtaining of public money, to wit, $15,000, unlawfully by corruption or infamous or degrading act . . ."

In the city election, Chappell defeated Johnson by 52 votes, 372 to 350.

THOSE IN UNIFORM

Sgt. Roland H. Skoglund, son of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Skoglund, 702 N. 15th St., Gladstone, Mich., is now serving in Korea with the 2d Infantry Division. Skoglund entered the Army in September 1948 and arrived in Korea March 1953. He has been awarded the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater Ribbon and the Good Conduct Medal.

He spent 18 months at Elmendorf AFB, near Anchorage, Alaska before being transferred to Pope.

Stay Off Railroad Property, Boys Told

Escanaba parents today were asked by E. E. Schultz, Chicago & North Western Railroad special agent to cooperate in a safety campaign—and perhaps save their own child from injury or death.

Schultz said that a number of boys have been caught playing in the North Western Railroad yards in Escanaba, and that five switch lamps had been damaged by the boys.

Fortunately there have been no injuries or deaths here, but Schultz pointed out that it can happen. Trespassing on railroad property is against the law, besides being dangerous, he said. Parents are asked to warn their children against entering railroad property.

Powers-Spalding PTA Will Name Officers Tuesday

Garden Man Fined $100 For Illegal Fishing Of Perch

Joseph Tatrow of Garden today pleaded guilty in Justice Henry Ranguette's court at Escanaba to a charge of illegal fishing and paid a fine of $100 and costs of $9.50.

Tatrow was charged with setting nets and taking fish with them in Garden Bay, which is closed to commercial fishing. Four gill nets containing about 350 pounds of perch were confiscated by the conservation department.

Conservation Officers Hugh Fisher of Nahma and Robert Bezi of Rapid River arrested Tatrow about 9 p. m. last night when Tatrow brought the nets and fish to shore.

CORONATION SHOWPIECE — This almost-completed statue of Queen Elizabeth II in the uniform of colonel-in-chief of the Grenadier Guards will be the central piece of a West End London store's coronation display. Sculptor Frederick Mancini, center foreground, works on the bottom of the 14-foot statue, while Doris Linder, top, who made the two-and-a-half-foot model, left foreground, works on a detail of the Queen's uniform.

President Takes Golf Vacation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower flies to Augusta, Ga., today for a vacation of golf—and some quiet work on a major speech reportedly dealing with foreign policy.

The Chief Executive and Mrs. Eisenhower departed today aboard the presidential plane Columbine about 11 a. m.

Making the trip, too, were the Eisenhower's three grandchildren—David, 5, Barbara Anne, 3, and Susan, 1—their mother, Mrs. John Eisenhower, and the first Lady's mother, Mrs. John S. Dowd.

A small staff of White House aides also was accompanying the President.

He plans to stay at least a week

Wall Street

By RADER WINGET

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market held to a fairly steady course today with trading on the quiet side.

Gains ran to around a point at the outside with losses fractional. The upside of the list was slightly more popular.

The best gainers showed up in the aircrafts, and some good plus signs appeared in steels, motors, utilities, and in scattered areas.

Railroads were mixed but higher on balance. Coppers were down, and there were some losers in oils, distillers, merchandising shares, and chemicals.

Attention was focused on a few individual stocks. The steels, motors and rails were more active than other divisions of the market, but even here the action was not fast by any means.

Among higher stocks were Bethlehem Steel, Studebaker, Montgomery Ward, Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, Lockheed, Philco, American Telephone, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, and Gulf Oil.

Lower were such issues as Woolworth, Distillers Corp., Consolidated Natural Gas, Homestake Mining, International Paper, and Standard Oil (NJ).

Erling Arntzen Is Lowest Bidder On Menominee School

MENOMINEE—Bids for construction of a projected elementary school building by St. Ann's Catholic church, which were opened Tuesday are under consideration of the pastor, Rev. Fr. Francis Geynet, and the building committee, with decision probable at a meeting planned for the middle of next week.

The proposed building would be situated on the church's school property at 1406—10th Avenue, east of the present St. Ann's school and the Lemieux-DeGayer Funeral Home. It would provide two classrooms a social room with kitchen facilities, boiler room, etc. The social room would be constructed for conversion into four class rooms if required Harry Gjelsteen, Menominee, is the architect.

Seven bids were submitted for the general construction contract with the two low bidders only $12 apart. They were Erling Arntzen, Escanaba, $48,986, and the Kaysner Construction Company, Sault Ste. Marie, $48,998. Other general construction bids were submitted by Noah Piquette and Albert Salen, Menominee contractors; Olsen & Plath, Escanaba; McDonald Construction Company, Marquette and Prokesh Construction Company, Iron River.

Special Program At Women Of The Church Meeting

A movie and a short play will be two of the features of the meeting of the Women of the Church of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Wednesday, April 15, at 8:15 p. m. in the Guild Hall of the church.

The movie, "Give Unto the Lord," shows the presentation of the United Thank Offering at the last triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church held in Boston.

The play, "Important Date," portrays the United Thank Offering at work. Taking part will be Mrs. Henry Donnelly, Mrs. Vernon Johnson, Mrs. E. L. Pohl, Mrs. Louis Hoyer and Mrs. Joseph S. Dickson.

Delegates and alternates will be elected at the meeting to the annual diocesan convention of the Woman's Auxiliary. The meeting at which Princess Ileana of Roumania will be guest speaker will be held at St. Paul's Church in Marquette May 8.

Mrs. A. T. Hoffman will be in charge of refreshments Wednesday evening, assisted by Mrs. Charles H. Bisdee and Mrs. Catherine Locke. Mrs. Dickson, parish United Thank Offering treasurer is in charge of the program and Mrs. Barnett Mills, president, will preside at the meeting.

Guild members of Trinity Episcopal Church in Gladstone and Zion Episcopal, Wilson, have been invited to attend.

Joanne Bink, Alfred Beauvais Exchange Vows

Miss Joanne Frances Bink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob A. Bink, 1019 1st Ave. S., became the bride of Alfred Beauvais of Escanaba, at a ceremony at 9:15 a. m. today at St. Joseph's Church. The vows were spoken before Father Colman Higdon, O. F. M.

Mrs. Ray Knauf of Manistique was her sister's maid of honor. Wilfred Beauvais was best man for his brother. They are sons of Mrs. Augusta Beauvais.

The bride wore a gown of white velvet with a snug bodice, distinguished by a Peter Pan collar, lace yoke, and long fitted sleeves, and a full skirt which formed a train. A tiara headdress held her finger-ring veil. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book with flower knotted ribbon markers.

Mrs. Knauf was gowned in pink net over taffeta and she carried a colonial bouquet of white snapdragons and pink roses.

Mrs. Beauvais selected a silk print for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was red roses.

The wedding dinner for immediate family members was served at the Log Cabin and a reception is being held this afternoon at the Bink family home.

The newlyweds will live at 500 1st Ave. S., when they return from their honeymoon. The bride is a graduate of St. Joseph High School and her husband attended Escanaba Senior High School.

Those attending the wedding included Mrs. Robert Craig of Howell, Mrs. Arne Long, Gaylord, Mrs. Bart Tyrrell Jr., of Lansing, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Knauf of Manistique.

To remove the lacquer finish used on some new cast iron cooking utensils, boil a solution of salt and water in them. Scrub with soapy water, rinse well and dry. Season the utensil by rubbing with unsalted fat and warm it in a slow oven until the iron pores absorb the grease and become water resistant. Cool the utensil, then wash, rinse and dry thoroughly once more.

THE MEN OF SONG, nationally renowned male quartet, will appear in Escanaba at the Junior High School Auditorium at 8:15 tonight, in the final concert of the Delta County Community Concert Association. They will present a varied program of both classical and popular selections chosen from their many radio, television and concert presentations.

E. B. Galloway Will Speak At Forum Wednesday

Edgar B. Galloway, assistant trust officer of the National Bank of Detroit, will address the second session of the Women's Finance Forum sponsored by the State Bank of Escanaba at St. Joseph's parish hall Wednesday, April 15.

This topic will be "Wills and Estate Planning."

The forum sessions will be held at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. The lecture will be followed by an informal question and answer period and a social hour during which coffee will be served.

Mr. Galloway was born in Hillsdale, Mich., and received primary and high school education there. He then attended the University of Michigan, Literary and Law School, where he was graduated in law in 1935.

He practiced law approximately 15 years before going with the National Bank in Detroit in 1950. In that time he has nine years with Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, two years with Woodall Industries, Inc., and three years in practice by himself.

One of his principal duties with the National Bank of Detroit is aiding individuals in estate planning.

Home League Social Thursday

The Home League of the Salvation Army will sponsor an "everybody's birthday party" at the Salvation Army Hall, 112 N. 15th St., Thursday, April 16, at 8 p. m. Two missionaries, Miss Betty Malone and Miss Lois Vaughn, who are here from Kentucky working among the people at Harris, will present the program. Each one attending is asked to provide one pound or one can of groceries for the missionaries who are traveling by house trailer. Refreshments will be served to all after the program. The public is invited.

If your shower curtain seems to be getting stiff, it's time it was washed. To do this, fill the bathtub with warm water, add a detergent and work up a good suds. Drop the curtain into the sudsy water, let it stand a few minutes, then dunk it up and down. If there are any stains on the curtain, sprinkle a little extra detergent on them and rub them with a sponge or brush. Rinse the curtain in clear warm water and hang it loose to dry.

Today's Recipes

Mrs. Eldor Miller of Gladstone Rte. 1 has an excellent recipe for salted peanut cake which she has sent the department in answer to a recent request.

Salted Peanut Cake

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup shortening
2 eggs, keep whites for frosting
1 cup sour milk
1 teaspoon soda, put in sour milk
1 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup ground salted peanuts
Save some to sprinkle on frosting.

Frosting For Cake:

1 cup white sugar
1/2 cup brown sugar
5 tablespoons water
Boil and pour on beaten egg whites.

Ever dip cheese sandwiches in an egg-and-milk mixture and fry like French toast? You'll need two eggs, beaten slightly and combined with a third of a cup of milk and a dash of salt for 6 sandwiches. Fry the sandwiches in butter or margarine on both sides until they are golden-brown and the cheese slightly melted; serve with currant jelly and tea or coffee.

Improvement Of M-77 Proposed

Reconstruction plans for a portion of M-77 in Germfask township are outlined in a letter received by Leonard T. England, township treasurer, from Charles M. Zeigler, state highway commissioner.

Zeigler's letter to England follows: "This will acknowledge your letter of March 19 in which you call my attention to the condition which exists on M-77 in Schoolcraft County. The department has given this stretch of road considerable study. The alignment on this present road is not satisfactory because of two sharp curves. We wish to eliminate this condition.

"Complete plans for a job of reconstruction, with better alignment, and paved surface of a section of M-77 from the north and of the bituminous material just north of Blaney Park, northerly to just south of Germfask, are being prepared and will be ready to advertise for construction within the next three or four months.

"Because of the bad alignment of the present road at the old bridge just south of Germfask, this old bridge will be used temporarily as a detour bridge, and a new bridge over the Manistique River will be placed under contract just as soon as it is possible to get a new bridge designed and plans ready for the letting of the contract, which should be yet this fall."

Missionary To Speak At Zion

The Rev. Howard Olson, missionary from Tanganyika, East Africa, will speak at Zion Lutheran Church Wednesday evening, April 15, it is announced by the Rev. G. A. Herbert, pastor. The service is scheduled for 8.

The Rev. Olson is a brother of Robert A. Olson, assistant pastor at the local Lutheran church.

At present he is spending a furlough in this country, filling speaking engagements and also translating Sunday School materials for the Tura tribes in East Africa.

He also has pursued advance study at the Kennedy School of Missions, Hartford, Conn., and in a short time will be awarded an advanced degree for graduate study.

With his wife and child, he will return to Africa in May and take up an assignment at the new Isuna station, organized two years ago. The Isuna establishment already has 12 outstation bush schools and two registered primary schools.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the service.

Movie Star Bilker Listed As Suicide

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Death of a woman recently arrested in an alleged killing of movie stars has been listed by the coroner's office as a probable suicide.

Mrs. Vivian Lingie, 55, was found dead in a hotel room yesterday. Police said a note on the dresser indicated she had taken sleeping powder.

She was due to appear today in Beverly Hills Municipal Court on charges of selling lottery tickets and forging the name of Gary Cooper's mother on checks drawn on accounts of Bing Crosby and Ronald Colman.

An early form of the hammer was used as a medieval weapon, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

DALI'S ANSWER TO REDS—This "Cross of Peace" is Salvador Dali's answer to pro-Communist fellow-artist Pablo Picasso's "Peace Dove" (lower right) which has been used widely by the Reds to symbolize their "peace" program. Dali says his design is the "non-political symbol of the free world's spiritual crusade." The four extremities are hands pressed together in prayer to symbolize spirituality. The clasped hands in center represent union and strength. Together they express Dali's formula: "Peace=prayer+brotherhood+spiritual force."

Second Proposal For Redistricting U.P. Is Submitted By Wood

A second plan for reapportioning the Upper Peninsula has been submitted to the apportionment committee of the state legislature by Rep. John F. Wood, of the Alger district.

A previous plan for redistricting the Upper Peninsula to reduce representation from eight to seven was submitted by Reps. James Goulette, of Iron Mountain, and Carl Lindquist, of Iron River.

The Goulette-Lindquist plan would wipe out the Alger district, throwing Luce and Mackinac counties in with Chippewa, tacking Alger on to Baraga and Iron counties.

Supervisors To Meet Thursday

The Schoolcraft County Board of Supervisors will hold its annual April meeting Thursday, April 16, beginning at 10 a. m., it is announced by G. Leslie Bouschor, county clerk.

Organization for the year and equalization of tax assessments will be the principal items on the agenda. Included in the organization will be election of a chairman and appointment of various standing committees.

The board this year will have three new members, and possibly four, depending on the outcome of a recount in Manistique township Saturday night.

Tournament Sites Set At Softball Meeting

Tournament sites for the Upper Peninsula championships in three classes were set at the spring meeting of the U. P. Softball Association here Sunday afternoon.

In Class A the U. P. finals tournament will be held in the Marquette district Aug. 21-23. The Class B title tournament will be staged in Ironwood and the Class C tournament in Iron Mountain on the same dates. Exact site of the Class A tournament will be determined by Ed Stevens, Association president, and Joe Beiring, Marquette district commissioner.

The district tournaments will be held Aug. 12-16, the U. P. finals Aug. 21-23 and the state Class A championship meet at Escanaba on Sept. 5-7.

Stevens, of Negaunee, was re-elected president of the U. P. Softball Association. George Grenholm of Escanaba was named first vice president, Arthur DeFior, Iron Mountain, second vice president, and Keith Morin, Escanaba, secretary-treasurer.

Appointed commissioners for 1953 were Beiring of Marquette, Herb Levin of Sault Ste. Marie, John Hodges of Copper Country, Mario Pietrangio of Iron Mountain, Rudy Rezzatto of Ironwood, and Paul Vardigan of Escanaba.

July 1 was set as the deadline for player rosters and team registration.

The Association will meet next on Aug. 9 at Iron Mountain to make final classification of teams and to draw up tournament plans for the Upper Peninsula tournaments.

See New Ladies' Bowling Records

DETROIT (AP)—With only the first four days completed, there were indications that the 36th annual Women's International Bowling Congress tournament was headed for new scoring records.

Already on top of the young tournament were some healthy scores on which future bowlers could set their sights.

The top target was a 1768 tally by Elaine Scheffler, of Springfield, Ill., in the all events. Elaine, a 33-year-old ex-bowling instructor, posted her mark Sunday in a session that saw three first places change hands.

In doubles, there was a new leader, too, the Lila Littrell-Virginia Sweeney combine, of Indianapolis, Ind., who logged 1097.

The singles division had produced a new leader in Betty Jordan, of Indianapolis, with 610.

These were all very good scores for the first weekend of competition in the tournament which has attracted a record-setting 5000 teams.

The most adjacent assault on top honors will come Tuesday when Marion Ladewig, of Grand Rapids, four-time world match-game singles queen, and her Fantarium Majors team, will begin their attack on the Detroit Recreation lanes.

Detroit Golfer Is Fifth In Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Detroit's Chick Harbert, who led the first round of the Masters golf tournament with a 68, wound up in a tie for fifth place with a total of 285.

That 285, with Tommy Bolt of Maryland, N. J., would have been good enough to win the 1952 Masters. But Ben Hogan shot a 274 this year to clip five-strokes off the Masters record, and three others managed to get below 285.

Harbert and Bolt each won $900 in prize money.

Horton Smith, pro at the Detroit Golf Club, and Chuck Kocis, Detroit amateur, had cards of 302. Neither finished among the first 20.

Here's how the Michigan entries shot the par 72 course by rounds: Harbert 68-73-70-74—285. Smith 78-76-72-76—302. Kocis 75-75-75-77—302.

SOFTBALL MEETING

Members of last year's Power & Light softball team will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 at Skinn's, manager Bob Jensen announced. Players are asked to turn in uniforms.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

Amateur boxing fans in Marquette county saw plenty of leather-swinging at Negaunee Saturday night when the Knights of Columbus put on a nine-bout card, first to be held in that city for a number of years.

If the current interest in amateur boxing continues, the Upper Peninsula Golden Gloves championship tournament here this year should be one of the best in history. Besides the card at Negaunee Saturday night, one mitt show was already held at Manistique last month and another is planned for Escanaba on May 23. There has also been talk of staging a summer show at Iron Mountain later on.

These paired-match shows provide the shot in the arm that Upper Peninsula amateur boxing needs. They give the youngsters a chance to break in on the boxing scene without actually entering Golden Gloves competition. And they keep the experienced boxers in shape for tournament time. Not only that, they also give boxing fans a taste of the competitive sport during the off season and help build a following that is needed to keep the U. P. tournament alive.

The subject reminds us of our favorite tale of the ring. It involves a battle-weary boxer who has been taking a terrific lacing for two rounds. In the third round he's down for a nine count on the first punch thrown. He gets up and is flattened again. He crawls to his feet, clinches and gets dropped by a left hook. The bell finally rings and he stumbles to his corner to be greeted by his second: "That's the way to work, he's weakening fast." "Wattaya mean," mumbles the beaten fighter. "It's taking him longer to get to a neutral corner every time he knocks you down," snaps his second.

Award Cage Letters At St. Joe Sports Dinner

Varsity basketball letters were presented to 12 St. Joe Trojan athletes by Coach Tom St. Germain at the annual St. Joe all-sports banquet held Saturday evening at the parish hall.

Also awarded cage letters were 12 members of the St. Joe girls basketball team. Honored at the dinner, sponsored by the St. Joe Booster Club, were athletes, cheerleaders, coaches and parents of players.

Coach St. Germain gave letters to Tom Brien, Tom Millington, John Martinac, Bob Sendenburgh, Jim Gravelle, Dan Marsieck, Dick Cass, Dick Bryson, Ed Zimmerman, Dave Hinn, Jerry McDonough and Bill Maycunich. Also introduced were Bill Lancoeur and Frank Mileski who were moved up to the varsity squad late in the season.

Girl cage letterwinners were Kay MacLean, Dorothy Slosson, Mary Manning, Pat Rooney, Nancy Rademacher, Marilyn Johnston, John Finlan, Elaine Snow, Joan Ferrari, Barbara Boyce, Barbara Bink and Marlene Pateric.

John Hagerman served as master of ceremonies at the program following dinner. Members of the St. Joe coaching staff introduced were Bob Dufour, Ira "Hack" Hanson, Don Dufresne, Ed McCarthy and St. Germain. Brief speeches were also made by Bob Wagner, Fr. Stephen Schneider, St. Joe athletic director, and Robert Forton, president of the St. Joe Booster Club.

Special recognition was paid the St. Joe cage squad which won the Upper Peninsula Class C championship the past season and to St. Germain, named the coach of the year in the U. P. by the Upper Peninsula Sports Writers Association.

The St. Joe varsity basketball players presented St. Germain with a pen and pencil set.

Idaho State Is New College Ring Champ

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—With Tom Hickey winning the 165-pound championship, Michigan State College's boxing team finished in a tie for fourth place in the NCAA boxing tournament here over the weekend.

Idaho State won the team title, Michigan State, North Carolina A. & T. and San Jose State tied for fourth.

Hickey rallied in the final round to take a 2-1 decision over Fred Shieman, of California, in the 165-pound Championship scrap. Both slugged hard and near the end both fighters were swinging wildly.

Vanderlinden Scores KO; Betts Edges Young Ammann

NEGAUNEE — (Special)—Escanaba's Ron Vanderlinden provided the only knockout on the nine-bout amateur boxing card held here Saturday night as fighters from Negaunee, Marquette, Ishpeming, Manistique and Marinette showed their wares before a crowd of 500 enthusiastic fans.

Vanderlinden, 135 pounds, uncorried a two fisted attack that stopped Floyd Lacousiere of Marinette in 44 seconds of the first round. The boys traded left hooks at the opening bell and seconds later Vanderlinden whipped a left to the body and a right to the head that stunned Lacousiere. A right shot to the jaw put him down for the count.

Vanderlinden was the only Escanaba boxer on the program. Other bouts slated for Escanaba boys were cancelled because of lack of opponents.

'Stique Fighters Star

Trainer Ed Toyra's Manistique scrappers furnished some of the heaviest action on the card as they won two and lost two. Buddy Holmberg, hard-hitting featherweight, scored a TKO over Dick Boucher of Marinette in 1:19 of the first round. Holmberg rapped potent hooks to the head and body and had Boucher in trouble with the first punch.

Darryl Bertrand, Manistique welterweight, took all three rounds to gain a unanimous decision over Bud Paquette of Marquette. Bertrand used a sharp left and a damaging right uppercut to beat the retreating Paquette.

In the semi-windup Marquette's Tommy Betts edged stocky Werner Ammann in a fast flyweight clash. Betts worked a fast left jab and a slapping right to pile up points on Ammann who did most of the damage inside. The split decision gives Betts, U. P. and Wisconsin Golden Gloves champion, two wins in three starts against Ammann.

Loses Split Decision

Another Manistique fighter, Don Aldrich, came out on the short end of a split decision. Ted Prudom of Negaunee was on the floor for an eight count in the first round but got up to stage a nice recovery. Most ringsiders figured Aldrich to cop the duke but the Negaunee scrapper drew the votes of two judges with his fast finish.

In the headline bout Ted Feldman of Marquette scored a first round TKO over wild Red Krieg of Marquette. Game but inexperienced, Krieg was down three times before referee Jimmy Mancini of Iron Mountain stopped it late in the first.

In one of the best scraps of the evening, Bob Hanson, fighting out of Leo Legacy's stable at Marinette, dropped a split decision to Harry Paquette of Michigamme. Hanson showed more class and had the sharper punches, but he was willing to take three to land one and nearly went down after a flurry midway in the second round.

Gravedoni Beaten

Marinette's Jack Morin put James Gravedoni of Ishpeming on the canvass with a right to the chin in the first round and then went on to win a split decision in a good welterweight scrap.

Chuck Nault of Ishpeming posted a decision over Gary Wheaton of Marinette in a 135 pound match. Alternating with Mancini as the third man in the ring was Al Jacobson of Marquette. Judges were Ray Neely of Negaunee and George Hurley of Marquette. The bouts were sponsored by the Negaunee Knights of Columbus.

Specialist Will Operate On "Babe" For Malignancy

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—Babe Didrikson Zaharias was being prepared for an operation today as the sports world wondered if the greatest woman athlete ever again would trek golf courses in championship play.

A malignant condition that calls for major surgery knocked her out of the woman's golf tour and some time this week she is due to undergo the fateful operation. A noted specialist now is being sought and may be obtained before the day is over.

George Zaharias, husband of the Babe, left Sunday for Denver and may be conferring with a specialist there. It was announced only as a two-day "business trip" but Zaharias had said the name of the specialist would not be revealed until he was obtained so there would "be no pressure on him."

Mrs. Zaharias was told Saturday by specialists who had given her a three-day examination that she had a malignancy of the lower rectum, that they thought they could correct the condition but "whether it will return is some-

Spartan Teacher And Student Win Crowns In AAU Wrestling

TOLEDO, O. (AP)—A Michigan State College teacher and a student won two AAU wrestling championships here over the weekend.

Dale Thomas, the teacher, won the 191-pound crown, and Freshman Jim Sinadinos, a 19-year-old, the 136-pound title.

Thomas, a member of the U. S. Olympic team, won his championship by a decision in the final bout over Dick Torio, 23, of Toledo University, Mid-America Conference champ. Thomas won AAU titles in 1943, '47 and '48.

Major League Baseball Managers All Confident As Season Opens

NEW YORK (AP)—At least four major league managers think they will win the pennant, a dozen believe they will finish in the first division and all 16 are convinced their teams are better than last year as the 1953 baseball season gets underway today.

"I think we will win," said Charlie Dressen, peppery little pilot of the defending National League champion Brooklyn Dodgers. "I know we have a stronger team. I told Buzzy Bavasi (Dodger vice president) last winter we could win if he got me another starting pitcher. He got Russ Meyer, who fits perfectly into our pitching plans.

"The team is strong in all departments. The addition of Junior Gilliam gives me the kind of lead-off man we needed. Now I've got the type of team I like to work with. They can do things."

Stengel Optimistic

Casey Stengel was no less optimistic than the manager of the club his New York Yankees defeated in the World Series last October.

"Sure I think we will win it and make it five in a row," said Casey. "If I didn't think I was going to win my players wouldn't have confidence in me as a manager. I know we are a more set club than we were at this time a year ago. And I've got better pitching. I have not seen the Indians or White Sox and I don't know how much they have improved."

Dressen named the New York Giants as the team to beat for the National League flag, but that didn't prevent Steve O'Neil from picking his own Philadelphia Phillies to win.

"I think we can win the pennant," said the veteran manager bluntly, "but it's going to be a tough fight with the Dodgers, Giants and Cardinals battling with us all the way."

Joining the "we can win it" chorus, Manager Al Lopez of the Cleveland Indians said: "We have a better ball club than we had last year and I think we have a real good chance to win the pennant. The Yankees will have to be a better club than they were last year to beat us."

Eddie Stanky, St. Louis Cardinals: "Our ball club is a strong pennant contender. This opinion is based on our fine pitching staff and on the nice showing of three rookies from Rochester—Ray Jablonski, Steve Bilko and Rip Repulski. Stan Musial has looked great this spring."

Hopes For Chisox

Paul Richards, Chicago White Sox—"We can win it. We'll have to have a couple of fellow catch fire. We have improved defensive play in our infield, outfield and catching and have more consistent hitting. I know New York and Cleveland are going to be formidable again and it is possible Philadelphia and Washington could be in the midst of things."

Leo Durocher, New York Giants—"I never make any predictions about my own team and this year is no exception. But I know we have a good team and should be in contention all the way. As usual Brooklyn is the team to beat."

Lou Boudreau, Boston Red Sox—"Although we're going to concentrate on the development of our promising rookie players, outfielders especially, we're shooting for the first division. I am confident improved pitching by our veterans will keep the Red Sox in the top half of the American League all season."

"Cubs Improved"

Phil Cavarretta, Chicago Cubs—"Unquestionably the Cubs are an improved club. Just how much will be determined how we turn out down the middle. Our pitching is good, our catching, improved. We're strong at first and third, and in left and right field."

Jimmy Dykes, Philadelphia Athletics—"I pick the teams to finish in the following order: New York, Cleveland, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Washington, St. Louis and Detroit. I don't think any club in the league is going to be a pushover."

Rogers Hornsby, Cincinnati

It's Play Ball Today For Big League Teams

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Washington and Cincinnati, noted for their early starts and lagging finishes, beat the gun again today as they inaugurate another major league season that promises to provide special interest for the nation's baseball fans.

The world champion New York Yankees and defending National League champion Brooklyn Dodgers, the choice of the experts and betting commissioners alike, ruled heavy favorites to repeat, Cleveland and Chicago in the American, and New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis in the National, were given outside chances to pull up sets.

Although the Yankees and Dodgers will have little or no change in their lineups, teams in general have undergone tremendous re-vamping with only 44 per cent of last year's starting lineups back. The batting orders present 22 freshman faces, excluding the pitchers.

Yanks In Action

In today's only American League game, Washington was scheduled to engage the Yankees at the nation's capital, where Vice President Nixon subs for President Eisenhower in throwing out the first ball.

A crowd of 300,000 was expected to be on hand to see whether the Yankees can get off on the right foot in their bid for an unprecedented fifth straight pennant. Allie Reynolds (20-8), the Yankees' brilliant right-hander, was to oppose Bob Porterfield (13-14), who once tolled for the New Yorkers.

A capacity crowd of some 30,000 was scheduled for Cincinnati's Crosley Field to welcome the Milwaukee Braves back into the big leagues. Milwaukee, in an astonishing franchise shift from Boston, returns after an absence of 50 years. It was a member of the American League in 1901 only to relinquish its franchise to the St. Louis Browns the following year.

Milwaukee Saves Spahn

Manager Charley Grimm of the Braves planned to pitch right-hander Max Surkont (12-13) against Cincinnati while Rogers Hornsby of the Redlegs decided on Clarence (Bud) Podbielan (5-5). Each pilot saved his star southpaw for tomorrow's games. Hornsby wants Ken-ny Raffensberger (17-13) to oppose his Chicago Cub cousins and Grimm held out Warren Spahn (14-19) for the predominantly left-handed hitting St. Louis Cardinals in Milwaukee's first home game tomorrow.

All teams swing into action tomorrow when eight games are expected to attract some 231,000 spectators, and bring the total attendance up to 291,000 for the 10 openers. The record opening day attendance was set in the lush 1948 days when 331,783 watched 10 inaugurals.

Tomorrow's largest crowd is expected in Cleveland, where 55,000 hope to watch a right-handed duel between Saul Rogovin (14-9) of the Chicago White Sox and Bob Lemon (22-11) of the Indians.

Biggest Crowd Expected

The National League's biggest turnout probably will be at Milwaukee, where 36,000 are expected to see the improved Braves take on Eddie Stanky's Cards.

A change in the schedule resulting from the franchise shift will pit Pittsburgh against the Dodgers at Brooklyn. Some 25,000 are expected to watch the Dodgers open defense of the National League title with right-hander Carl Erskine (14-6) on the mound. Veteran Murry Dickson (14-21) will be on the hill for the Pirates.

Robin Roberts, the majors' biggest 1952 winners with 28, makes his fourth opening day start in Philadelphia against the New York Giants. Some 20,000 figure to see Larry Jansen (11-11) oppose their favorite.

The Cubs, winners of their last three openers, will face an old jinx in Raffensberger, who has whipped them 27 times while losing only 14. Some 25,000 will see right-hander Bob Rush (17-13) try to snap the Redleg southpaw's hex.

First Night Opener

The St. Louis Browns will have their first night opener in history, meeting the Detroit Tigers. Some 15,000 will have to get accustomed to the new lineups. No fewer than seven players were on the opposing team in 1952, including right-hander Ned Garver (8-10) of Detroit, who last year pitched the opener for the Browns and shut out the Tigers, 3-0. Virgil Trucks (5-19), traded by Detroit to St. Louis last winter, will hurl against his former mates.

The stand-pat Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics will clash at Yankee Stadium before some 40,000. Vic Raschi (16-6), who holds a 24-4 edge over the As, will be on the mound for the Yankees. He will be opposed by left-hander Alex Kellner (12-14).

Mel Parnell (12-12), who has whipped Washington 18 times in 31 decisions, will try to maintain his mastery over the Nats in Boston. A turnout of 15,000 is expected to watch Lou Boudreau's youngsters hit against their former teammate, right-hander Walter Master-son (10-9).

Pitching Is Question As Tigers Eye Opener

By JOE FALLS

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—The Detroit Tigers will open the 1953 baseball season tomorrow night with one of the most uncertain pitching staffs in the history of the club.

Manager Fred Hutchinson doesn't have one hurler he can call his "stopper," a pitcher who can deliver a good game when most needed.

When spring training started Hutchinson spoke very highly of his pitching staff. He still thinks it can carry the club out of the cellar, but it showed nothing during the exhibition season to back him up.

First Four

Ned Garver, Billy Hoelt, Hal Newhouse and Art Houtteman are scheduled to hurl the Tigers' first four games of the season, with Garver getting the choice assignment of facing the St. Louis Browns in the opener here tomorrow night.

But none of these hurlers have shown the form expected of them. All were pounded and pounded viciously in their last starts as the Tigers wound up their training season on a dull and disappointing note. They dropped four straight games to the Cincinnati Redlegs, the final one yesterday by the score of 10-9.

Houtteman was the whipping boy yesterday. The strongarmed righthander worked the first six innings and gave up 10 hits and eight runs. Willard Marshall and Hobie Landtrich clubbed him for home runs.

Jordan Loser

As it turned out, Milt Jordan was the losing pitcher. He blew it in the ninth inning by walking two Redlegs after two were out, then yielding a game-winning single to Johnny Temple.

Bob Nieman and Jim Delsing tried to keep Houtteman in the game by smacking home runs, but the Tiger hurler gave up at least one run in every inning he worked except the fourth. He left on the short end of an 8-7 score.

But Houtteman needn't feel too badly. Cincinnati also butchered Newhouse, Hoelt and Garver.

On Saturday, the Redlegs carved up Newhouse for eight hits and six runs in five innings. On Friday they walloped Hoelt for 10 hits and five runs in six innings, and last Thursday gave Garver the worst beating imaginable, bouncing him around for 10 runs and 10 hits—half of the hits home runs in only five innings.

All told, the quartet gave up 10 home runs in the four games

Not Much Help

There doesn't seem to be much help among the other pitchers either. Lefty Ted Gray had his tonsils removed in Florida and it is not certain when he'll be able to pitch again. Bill Wight, another southpaw, has looked good at times, but just when you think he's ready to start winning the roof falls in on him.

It could be, however, that these hurlers will straighten out once the season gets underway. Both Garver and Newhouse say they'll be winners, and Houtteman is due for a change of luck. Hoelt figures to improve with each game.

Hutchinson wants to start winning right away. He doesn't want to get off to another bad start this season. He remembers only too well last year, when the Tigers lost their first eight games and never recovered from it.

As matters stand now, Hoelt will pitch Wednesday against the Browns, with Newhouse and Houtteman hurling against the

Regular Goalie Back In Action

BOSTON (AP)—Now that veteran goalie Gerry McNeil appears to have regained his oldtime confidence, the Montreal Canadiens' hopes for a Stanley Cup triumph are soaring.

McNeil, after missing four play-off games, returned to action Sunday night before a packed 13,909 Boston Garden crowd and turned in a 3-0 shutout that gave Canadiens a 2-1 lead in the National Hockey League's best-of-seven final playoff series.

By his own request which he insisted, was "for the good of the team," McNeil gave way to rookie Jacques Plante before the sixth game of Canadiens' successful semi-final competition with the Chicago Black Hawks.

Plante gave spectacular performances as the Canadiens won the last two games from the Black Hawks and the first against the Bruins in Montreal. But Coach Dick Irvin became dissatisfied when the Bruins poured four goal through Plante to win Saturday night in Montreal.

Cleveland Indians when the Tigers open their home season Thursday and Friday.

Hogan Breaks Record In Winning Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—When Ben Hogan, the little perfectionist from Texas, stepped up to accept the $4,000 check for his record-shattering victory in the 17th Masters Golf Tournament, he said he hoped to return next year and shoot the same caliber of golf.

Byron Nelson, a fellow Texan who has acted as host player since Bob Jones retired, replied: "If Ben Hogan comes back and shoots the same caliber of golf he shot this year, he'll be out there playing all by himself."

After the way the "retired" Hogan tamed the tough, 6,900-yard Augusta National Club course, his tournament mates probably wish he'd waited until today and played with President Eisenhower during his golfing vacation instead of beating them out of the biggest hunk of prize money.

Makes It Look Easy

The 40-year-old 1951 Masters champion made the beautiful, spacious course look easy with his almost faultless performance. His iron shots and putting were particularly effective.

Not only did he slice 14 strokes off par, but he also bettered the previous tournament record by five strokes. And his 76-69-66-69—274 was the third time in Masters history that anyone has managed four sub-par rounds. Par is 36-36—72.

Ed (Porky) Oliver of Palm Springs, Calif., shot a 70 yesterday to match the old record of 279 and finish second.

Prize Money Doubled

Oliver pocketed $2,500 and Mangrum $1,700 when prize money in the $10,000 tournament was doubled all the way down the line. The total was approximately $26,000 when you count the $200 grant to every pro who finished out of the top 24 "money" places.

Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Ind., was fourth with 283, good for $1,400. Chick Harbert of Detroit and Tommy Bolt of Maplewood, N. J., tied for fifth with 285, $900 each. Harvie Ward Jr. of Atlanta and Frank Stranahan of Toledo tied for low amateur honors with 291s.

Defending champion Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., had a 292 total and a tie for 16th.

ONE-MAN RIOT

FOLSOM PRISON, Calif. (AP)—Nineteen convicts recently were disciplined for breaking up wash bowls and setting their bedding afire. One prisoner refused to join the riot and, as a reward, was moved to a quieter cell.

He promptly smashed his toilet bowl and fired his bedding. Warden Robert A. Heinze said he did not know why.

This three-wheeled enclosed motorcycle is sure to keep the postman happy on rainy days.

Weary Postman Gets a Lift

Modern design is catching up with the foot-weary letter carrier. Post office officials have disclosed that something is being done to speed up mail delivery and save the postman's shoe leather. For more than a year experiments have been made with a variety of vehicles, some of which are shown here. With the aid of one of these vehicles, the postman can complete his route an hour or two earlier than he can on foot. Officials say that such saving in time can, through reorganization, be translated, as well as to lighten a burden that has grown to 80 pounds of mail annually for each person in the U. S.

Farragut's Warship Rotting In Norfolk

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A tired old lady droops in her berth here while congress ponders whether it should give her an expensive prescription that would prolong her life. The old lady is the once proud USS Hartford on whose decks Admiral Farragut in his battle with the Confederates in Mobile Bay yelled: "Damn the torpedoes. Full speed ahead."

A bill has been introduced in the House of Representatives to restore the old lady and send her to Mobile as an historic relic. The Navy estimates more than a million dollars would be required to restore her.

Meanwhile she is slowly rotting away in her berth at the St. Helena Annex of the Norfolk Naval Shipyard.

Cafe Bout Fatal At River Rouge

DETROIT (AP)—A fight in a River Rouge coffee house led to a man's death today.

Ralph Mustonen, 40, Dearborn truck driver, succumbed to an apparent head injury after a poker game argument, police said.

Police said that Edward J. Reasner was held for investigation.

Reasner and Mustonen were playing poker with three other men at 9 a. m., police said they were told, when an argument started.

Mustonen was struck in the forehead by Reasner, the latter admitted.

"He started for the door and then just fell over on the floor," Reasner said.

Mustonen's wife, Alice, said her husband suffered a severe head injury several years ago in an explosion. She said he stayed out all night to play poker sometimes but she never paid much attention to this "because he was a good man and worked hard most of the time."

Police Chief Alvin T. Royal of Ecorse said Reasner has a police record for fighting and drunkenness.

Donald Tydings Out Of Revenue Bureau

WASHINGTON (AP)—"What ever happened to Donald Tydings?" asked Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) of Internal Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews at a hearing yesterday on the revenue bureau's budget before a Senate appropriations subcommittee the senator heads.

The reference was to a cousin of Millard E. Tydings, former Democratic senator from Maryland. House probers of the bureau heard testimony several weeks ago that Donald S. Tydings, holder of an $8,500 a year internal revenue job, was in frequent trouble with his superiors but held onto his job.

But now, said Andrews in reply to McCarthy's question:

"He's fired. He has not appealed. He is no longer with us."

New Drug Banishes Dread Black Cancer

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Science Reporter

CHICAGO (AP)—Discovery of the first drug stopping the speedy and almost-always fatal black cancer, melanoma, was announced today.

It works only for a time. But it has banished this dread cancer in one human for at least a year, and has helped a few others.

Starts On Skin

Until now there has not been any drug or treatment, except surgery at the very earliest signs, which has had the slightest effect upon melanoma. This dark cancerous growth always starts somewhere on the skin, then spreads with distressing rapidity inside the body.

This heartening step in chemical warfare upon cancer was reported to the American Association for Cancer Research by Doctors Farber, Virginia Downing, and Majib Abu-Haydar of the Children's Cancer Research Foundation and Department of Pathology, Harvard Medical School, Boston.

TEPA has been used so far upon 17 humans with melanomas, Dr. Farber said. It temporarily knocked out the cancers in five. The other 12 were persons in whom the cancers already had spread to internal organs.

Work on mice indicates that TEPA might entirely abolish human melanomas if they were caught very early, said Dr. Farber. Melanomas account for about three per cent of all cancer deaths.

TEPA was developed by scientists of the Salco Chemical Division, American Cyanamid Company and first was tried against leukemia, the cancer of the blood. It has little effect against acute leukemia, but by happy accident it was tried upon melanoma.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

Royal Oak School Board Members Face $750 Fraud Charges

PONTIAC (AP)—The examination of three Royal Oak township school board members has been adjourned until May 4, without any of the defendants in the alleged conspiracy to defraud having been called to the stand.

A fourth school board member, Mrs. Loretta Baker, disputed the testimony of the state's main witness. Mrs. Baker is involved in the case only as a witness.

A Detroit painter, Aaron Bowie, accuses three members of the school accepting $750 from him to obtain a performance bond and failing to procure the bond or to return his money.

The three board members were indicted by Circuit Judge John Simpson of Jackson, sitting as a one man grand jury. They are: Sidney Thomas, the Rev. Chester Carter, and Lonnie C. Cash. All deny the accusation.
